

McLean Institute (Trust Variation) Bill

Notice of Intention to Promote a Private Bill

The McLean Institute (“the Institute”) at Christchurch gives notice that it intends to promote a private Bill, the “McLean Institute (Trust Variation) Bill” (“the Bill”) for introduction to the House of Representatives.

The object of the Bill is to provide for variation of the terms of the Institute, including its charitable objects and the powers of its trust board, by varying the terms of the Trust contained in the will of the late Allan McLean (as amended by the McLean Institute Act 1909, the McLean Institute Act 1930, and the McLean Institute Act 1934).

The promoter of the Bill is the McLean Institute.

Communications about the Bill may be sent:

- via post to the McLean Institute, PO Box 34060, Riccarton, Christchurch (Attention: the Chairperson); or
- via post to Duncan Cotterill, 148 Victoria Street, Christchurch 8013, (Attention: C Sykes and S Caradus); or
- via email to clare.sykes@duncancotterill.com and stephen.caradus@duncancotterill.com

A copy of the Bill will be available for inspection without fee during office hours (in accordance with Appendix C to the Standing Orders of the House of Representatives) between Wednesday 3 May 2023 and Wednesday 31 May 2023, at the offices of Duncan Cotterill, 148 Victoria Street, Christchurch.

A copy of the Bill can be accessed for free at the following web address:
<https://duncancotterill.com/publications/mclean-institute-trust-variation-bill>